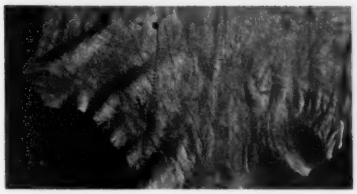
Contents

Features



p. 8

Mystery of the Indian Map

Decoding a Distant Time and Culture

Carolyn Gilman

p. 22

Missouri's Era of Not-So-Good Feelings

William Clark and Missouri's First Gubernatorial Election

Jeffrey E. Smith

p. 32

News from Foreign Homelands and the New Heartland

The Immigrant Press in Missouri

Berkley Hudson

p. 44

Three Mothers in Ste. Genevieve

Blending the Races, 1780–1890

Bonnie Stepenoff, Debbie Bibb, and Carla L. Jordan

p. 56

Compromising Their Rights

The U.S. Senate and the Kickapoo Treaties of 1819 and 1820

Michael W. Beatty

p. 66

Speculations on Joseph Pulitzer

Gadfly and Mystery Man

James Palmer

Departments

p. 2 From the Editor

p. 3 Laughing Matter

p. 4 Treasures from the Collections

p. 78 As We See It

p. 90 Book Reviews

p. 96 Back Story

FRONT COVER: "Tree of Life," Haitian metal oil drum sculpture, by Almann Ulysse, no date. Missouri History Museum.

BACK COVER: Osage warriors. Hand-colored engraving after 1840s drawings by George Catlin. Missouri History Museum.